Baswich (Holy Trinity) was an independent parochial curacy probably in the patronage of Walter Fowler of St Thomas (by Stafford) Esquire 1620-1684. He might have presented Thomas Tooth ? 1636-1693 who was appointed de facto parochial curate (by the churchwardens) on 29 May 1663. The parish contained two townships - Brocton and Walton - which each composed a simple constablewick.

Parish Registers

The parish register of the parish church of Holy Trinity, Baswich with Walton, commences in 1601. The original registers for the period 1601-1937 (Bapts), 1601-1974 (Mar), & 1601-1909 (Bur) and Banns for the periods 1754-1812 & 1823-1843 are deposited at Staffordshire Record Office. Bishops Transcripts, 1662-1883 (with many gaps) are deposited at Lichfield Record Office. A transcript of the registers of Baswich with Walton, Holy Trinity, 1571-1812, was published by the Staffordshire Parish Register Society in 1905, and has been reprinted by the Birmingham & Midland SGH. [GENUKI]

Bells

There are now three bells: (i) cast by John of Stafford, early 14th century, inscribed 'In Onore Sancte Trenete'; (ii) early 14th century, inscribed 'Missi decelis [sic] vos salvet vox Gabrielis'; (iii) 1591, Henry Oldfield of Nottingham. (fn. 195) [VCH]

Edward Neville B.A. (rector of Standon) c1615-1672 B128/D87

Neville, born about 1615, was a son of Thomas Neville of Wetwood in Eccleshall "gentleman". He studied at Oxford where on 18 Jun 1630 he was a student at Pembroke College and matriculated. Later he migrated to Oriel College. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 15 Feb 1633.4. He was presumably ordained deacon and on 25 Sep 1636 ordained priest by Lichfield. On 9 Mar 1636.7 he was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield and the same day licensed parochial curate of West Bromwich. In Feb 1643.4 he (? probably refused to sign the Solemn league and covenant and) was removed. By 29 Apr 1644 Neville, after a request from the parishioners, had been appointed compliant minister of Baswich independent parochial chapelry. At first he appears to have received an augmentation of £12 (sequestered from Mr Fowler) to his salary of £8; later he received two augmentations of £20 and £18 to his annual salary of £10. On 3 Apr 1648 (perhaps after presentation by Thomas Heath D.C.L. (chancellor of Peterbrough) c1598-1680) he was appointed compliant minister of Standon rectory and on 22 Jun paid first fruits. Apparently a committed presbyterian he signed the Staffordshire testimony of Jul 1648. In 1657 he certified the fitness of a candidate for the ministry. In early Jun 1660 he continued here as de jure rector and, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was confirmed in office. At Wolverhampton Assizes on 8 Mar 1661.2 he was found not guilty on an indictment "for refusing to read the book containing the proclamation". He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 28 Aug 1662 (four days late). In 1665 the rectory was valued at £50. In 1665 he did not certify the hearth tax for Standon constablewick but was assessed on 3 hearths at Standon township. Still in office he died, aged about 57, and was buried here on 1 Mar 1671.2. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 18 Apr 1672. His personalty was valued at £412 and included "His closett of Bookes printed & manuscripts £30". Neville married on 19 Dec 1655 at Baswich to Elizabeth Goldsmith by whom he had 2 sons and 1 daughter. Calamy in 1702 states in error that Neville was ejected in Staffordshire.

Clifton Stone M.A. (presbyterian minister of Baswich) c1620-1695 1649-1650

Stone, born about 1620, is of unknown parentage. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 13 Aug 1649 when he was in office as presbyterian minister of Baswich independent parochial chapelry. His predecessor had left office about 3 Apr 1648. At Baswich he received two augmentations (previously paid to his predecessor) of £20 and £18 to his annual salary of £10. He left Baswich in 1650 (after Mar 25). Probably after 1650 Stone studied at Oxford where he was a student at New Inn Hall. No record of his graduation as B.A. has been discovered but at Oxford he was awarded an M.A. on 21 May 1653. By Jul 1654 he was in office as presbyterian minister of Hopesay rectory, Salop where he was displaced by (the former rector) Richard Awnsham c1595-1675 in 1660. In early 1656 Stone (then at Hopesay) and the Greene family of Bransford, Worcs were parties to transactions involving property (valued at £160 or £355) at or near Horderley by Clunbury, Salop. Stone was presumably ordained deacon and priest before 20

May 1661 when after presentation pro hac vice by the bishop of Oxford he was instituted vicar of Stanton Harcourt, Oxon where he paid a clerical subsidy in Aug 1662. On 3 Sep 1662 after presentation by the Crown he was instituted vicar of (nearby) North Leigh, Oxon. By 19 Jun 1666 he was in office as vicar of Deddington, Oxon. On 20 Feb 1666.7 he was instituted vicar of Marston St Lawrence, Northants. A note in Deddington parish register reads "Clifton Stone our Minister of this p'ish went to Live at Marson - March the 26th 1667". Still in office at Marston Stone died, aged about 75, on 19 Apr 1695 and was buried there. He died intestate. His administration was granted under Northampton on 19 Jul 1695 to his daughter-in-law Frances Stone. Clifton married about 1650 to Damaris (d a1695) by whom he had 2 sons. Frances Stone's husband Azariah Stone M.A. c1656-1693 was Clifton's younger son and assisted his father as stipendiary curate at Marston.

Clifton Stone, collated in 1661, had been ejected from Hopesay church (Salop.) after the Restoration and resigned before 1664. (fn. 13) fn13 Calamy Revised, ed. A. G. Matthews, p. 465; Oldfield, 'Clerus Oxf. Dioc.'
(2014) In 1677 Clifton Stone, formerly of New Inn Hall, Oxford, came to Marston and was Vicar of Marston St Lawrence and Warkworth for nearly thirty years until his death on 19 April 1695. He was buried there together with his wife Damaris and his son Asariah who predeceased him, dying in 1693. His only other child, another son, had died years before when he was only 18, buried at his college. Oriel. Asariah was curate to his father and lived in the parish with his wife Frances Thornton (from Preston Capes), who bore him six children all christened at Marston. Clifton Stone died intestate: his next of kin were his grandchildren. On the[sic] July 1695 John, aged over 10, Anne, aged 9, and Martha, aged 7, appeared personally and nominated Frances Stone their mother as guardian during minority. A John Dod, Clerk (probably the John Dod MB, who died on 25 August 1699 aged 31; on his memorial slab in the church referred to as the son of John Dod. Rector of Marsh Gibbon; maybe a relative of the Puritan John Dod who wrote a famous guide to child rearing) was appointed guardian to Robert, aged 5, and Damaris, aged 4. Presumably Alice had predeceased her grandfather. Strangely the Letters of Administration granted the same day to Frances during her children's minority describe her as mother and guardian of all the five children. The sureties were Robert Thornton of Preston Capes, Gent., and Honor Thornton of Preston Capes, Spinster. Clifton Stone acted as a wtness to the will of T. Gervase of Marston St Lawrence on 17 January 1669/70. [Banbury Historical Society 19:7 (2014) p244-5]

Thomas Addenbrooke (presbyterian minister of Baswich) ?1625-1677
Addenbrooke, (? christened on 5 Mar 1625.6 at Kinver) was probably a son of William Addenbrooke of Kinver c1587-1643 and Jane (Grove). He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 3 Jan 1650.1 when he was "settled" as presbyterian minister of Baswich independent parochial chapelry. Here he received two augmentations (previously paid to his predecessor) of £20 and £18/13/4 to his annual salary of £10. During 1653 he was elected as register of Baswich. He probably resigned at Baswich shortly before 19 Jan 1658.9 when after presentation by John Davenport of Davenport, Cheshire esquire 1630-.... he was admitted as presbyterian minister of Swettenham rectory, Cheshire. Certificates of fitness had been supplied by four Staffordshire gentlemen: Matthew Moreton of Engleton in Brewood esquire c1590-1669, Richard Floyer of Hints esquire 1603-1679, Thomas Whitby of Great Haywood in Colwich gentleman c1618-1665 and Sir Thomas Whitgreave of Bridgeford in Seighford knight c1626-1695; and, four Staffordshire ministers: (Richard Clayton (compliant minister of Seighford) ? 1595-1669, John Greensmith (presbyterian minister of Colwich) ?1629-1666, Joseph Sonde (compliant minister of Swynnerton ?1598-1672 and Noah Bryan (presbyterian minister of Stafford St Mary) c1635-c1672. In Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto rector. In Oct 1661 he was ordained deacon and priest by Chester and also after (a second) presentation by John Davenport instituted as rector. He subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 6 Sep 1662 and on 11 Aug 1665 was licensed as a preacher by Chester. Still in office he died, aged about 52, in 1677. His will was proved under Chester in 1677. Addenbrooke married about 1652 to Ellen (d 1681) by whom he had 2 sons and 2 daughters.

William Southall (presbyterian minister of Baswich) e1628-.... B39
Southall, born perhaps about 1628, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade.
He was presumably qualified to be a ?presbyterian clergyman by 10 May 1658 when after presentation by Oliver Cromwell (Lord Protector) he was appointed presbyterian minister of Bednall independent parochial chapelry. On 4 Mar 1658.9 he was ?approved by the Commission for approbation of public preachers as presbyterian minister of Baswich independent parochial chapelry and was in office in Nov 1659. It is likely that in Jun 1660 he continued in office as de facto parochial curate but on 24 Aug 1662 did not subscribe to The act of uniformity and was thus to be deprived. Southall may not have married. No further record has been discovered. [NB: William Southall (vicar of Pattingham) 1611-1677 was a contemporary clergyman.]

Thomas Tooth (parochial curate of Baswich) ?1636-1693 D130

Tooth, (? christened on 19 Jun 1636 at Abbots Bromley), was probably a son of Richard Tooth of Abbots Bromley "gentleman". He studied at Oxford where on 28 Mar 1655 he was a servitor at St Mary Hall and matriculated but is not known to have graduated. On 11 Jul 1661 (together with John Kelsall c1636-1698 QV) he was as a literate ordained deacon and priest by Sodor & Man. By 26 Sep 1662 he was a stipendiary curate at Tixall. On 29 May 1663 after presentation by the churchwardens (? pro Walter Fowler of St Thomas (by Stafford) esquire 1620-1684) he was appointed de facto parochial curate of Baswich. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Brocton and Walton constablewicks (together the whole of Baswich parish) but was not assessed there. On 31 Jan 1667.8 he was (officially) licensed parochial curate. On 8 Oct 1675 he was licensed parochial curate of Marston. Still in office at Baswich and Marston he died, aged about 57, on 19 Apr 1673, probably at his residence Forebridge in Castle Church, and was buried on 24 Apr 1693 in the churchyard at Baswich. His administration was granted under Lichfield on 26 Apr 1693. His personalty was valued at £25/15/0 and included " One studdy of bookes £5 ". Tooth married about 1667 to Grace (d 1688) by whom he had 2 daughters.
